Proposed Creative Europe project

Field(s) dance, media, internet

Description

Project idea is to create website www.balticdance.eu – a platform for publishing dance art industry and dance culture events of the Baltic Sea region countries.

Currently news on dance culture events of Baltic Sea Region are fragmented / irregular and not easily found, because there is no single source of information culture (each organization has its own website and it makes it difficult for consumers to find the necessary information), as well as the information mainly is available in local language and not suited for other countries readers.

Each partner country editorial staff will be represented by their national dance industry publishing information of their national languages and partner languages. Main language will be English.

Information about the representatives from the Baltic Sea region countries will become more available at www.balticdance.eu. There will be cooperation possibilities, unique project realizations which will be available in several languages. Together jointly creating and organizing projects outside the Internet, such as flashmob Stopmob.
