

Luka Piškorič is a managing director and co-founder of Poligon - the first Slovenian creative centre, operating as an autonomous platform for empowerment of freelancers and communities from the fields of creative economy, social entrepreneurship and culture. Since 2011 he is focused on development and implementation of new economic models. He has co-funded Slovenia Coworking and Slovenia Crowdfunding initiatives. As a crowdfunding expert he has consulted several Slovenian and international creatives and innovators on successfully conducting their crowdfunding campaigns. He lectures about crowdfunding, coworking and creative economies at numerous conferences and faculties in Slovenia and abroad.

Luka Piškorič je direktor in soustanovitelj Poligona - prvega slovenskega kreativnega centra, ki deluje kot neodvisna platforma za opolnomočevanje samozaposlenih in skupnosti, delujočih na področju kreativne ekonomije, družbenega podjetništva in kulture. Od leta 2011 se ukvarja z razvojem in implementacijo novih ekonomskih modelov. Je soustanovitelj iniciativ Slovenia Coworking in Slovenia Crowdfunding ter sopobudnik slovenskega dneva souporabe. Kot strokovnjak za crowdfunding oz. množično financiranje je svetoval ali aktivno pomagal številnim slovenskim in tujim ustvarjalcem in inovatorjem pri uspešni pripravi in izvedbi kampanj množičnega financiranja. O množičnem financiranju, coworkingu ter kreativnih ekonomijah predava na številnih konferencah in fakultetah v Sloveniji in tujini.